Order Number: ORD-78002

Product/Service: Same-day delivery - NimbusHome Filter Pack (3 units)

Complaint Description:

This is the customer's third contact about the same undelivered order. The parcel was promised for same-day delivery on 9 March. Tracking has shown "at local depot" since 10 March. The customer has taken two days off work waiting for the delivery and describes the experience as unacceptable. He is asking to speak to a manager and has mentioned raising the matter with the consumer ombudsman if it is not resolved this week.

Issue Details:

The courier has not scanned the parcel out of the depot for eight days. Our resolution target for a high priority case is two business days and this case is now well beyond it. The customer was not proactively contacted at any point.

Supporting Information:

Screenshots of the tracking page on three separate dates were attached to the web form.

Resolution Provided:

None yet. A replacement has not been dispatched and no refund has been offered.

Escalation Information:

Escalated to the team lead on 18 March following the third contact. The customer has been told the case is now with a team lead.

Case Status: Escalated - open
